RECOGNITIONS: Dean’s List
OTHER HONORS: High Distinction
OTHER ACTIVITIES: Debate Club, Mock Trial
SPORTS: Tennis and golf teams
FAVORITES: Homecoming is always a blast, vibrant atmosphere, friendly people.
A STORY: I’ll always remember Prof. Larsen and how he made a topic I thought would be boring (International Relations) into something I want to spend my life pursuing. Who knew I’d enjoy negotiating and cultural studies?
HIGHLIGHTS: In sophomore year, my roommates and I really hit it off — we ate, studied and traveled (DAYTONA BEACH YEAH!!!) together, and found off-campus apartments to share since then. Now we’re planning to find a place in the city and look for jobs. Also, my semester in Buenos Aires gave me so many great memories.
JOBS: Campus 911 dispatcher, development office assistant, admissions office assistant.
ETC.: We took some of the best road trips. Whenever we could, we set up our class schedule so we had three-day weekends, and could hit the road. We went everywhere: Chicago to listen to the blues, Kansas City to eat barbeque, Des Moines because Evan’s grandma lives there, the Mall of America because we wanted to go to Legoland and The Void, St. Louis to listen to the blues and eat barbecue!
LOOKING FORWARD: A little time off, then it’s time to find a job. Grad school may be in my future, too.

Good luck, buddy!
Congrat’s Zach, wishing you all the best……..
